This article, which has made so many wonderful

HAMPTON, now in fine health, in the 79th year of is age. He was born in Virginia in the year 1775, and emigrated to Kentucky, then a wilderness, with his father in 1779. In early manhood he was so reduced by disease as to be almost wrecked in constitution. He spent much of his living for medical advice and attention; and grew nothing better, but worse. Finding no relief from his physician, he resolved to try the restorative powers of the roots, barks, leaves, plants, &c., of the forest. He then dwelt in the midst of the Red Men of the Western Wilds. Having heard much of their skill in the use of the vegetable remodies of the forest, and knowing their mode of medicinal practice must be one of practical experience, and not of theoretical specula-tion, he made himself acquainted with their reme dies, and also with the practical medicinal knowledge the early settlers of Kentucky had obtained from the "medicine men" of the Indians. He care

Office and Warerooms at 343 Broadway, N. Y. HESE Machines have been in successful opera-tion, in the hands of manufacturers and famitles for the past two years, and in every case have gren universal satisfaction. The proprietors are now prepared to offer them to the public, with that increased confidence in their merits, which the united testimony of their numerous customers has strengthened and confirmed.

These machine: are entirely different from any other, the principles on which they are made being exclusively our own. Among the advantages of this Machine over any others are the following: 1. The simplicity of its construction, and the ease with which it can be kept in the most perfect order. 2. The perfect manner with which the operator is enabled to stitch and sew the various kinds of work, from the finest linen to the coarsest cloths.

3. It particularly excels in the rapidity with which work can be executed, and in that respect it has no 4. The little power required to propel them, ens-bling even those of the most delicate constitution to We are now manufacturing a larger-sized machine more particularly adapted to the sewing of leather, canvas bags, and the heavier kinds of cloths.

A REMEDY FOR "EACH DISEASE." A T the request of many of my patients, I have consented to put up a class of my most efficient prescriptions in the form of FAMILY MEDICINES, each one suited to a particular disease, and not, like the manufacturers of the nostrums and panaceas of the day, promulgate to the world that any one compound will cure all diseases, and who, (in the words of the great Italian physician. Spallanzani) "put medicines which they know little, into bodies which they know less."

J. S. ROSE, M. D., Phila. For Cholera, Dysentery, Borrel Complaints, dc., Br. J. S. ROSE'S CARMINATIVE BALSAM. This mixture is one of the most important medicines, and should be kept in all families as a "specific" for Cholera and Bowel Complaints it has never failed. Dysentery vanishes in a few days when this article is used as directed. Price 25c. Dr. J. S. Rose's PAIN CURER will cure Stiff Neck Sore Throat, Pains in the face, Side, Back or Limbs from a Cold, Cholic, Cholera Morbus, &c. It cures Sprains, Chilblains, Cramps or Pains in the Stom ach or Bowels. Price 121, 25, and 50 cts.

Dr. J. S. Rose's Extract or Buchu is one of the best remedies ever used for diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, &c. Price 50c. DR. J. S. ROSE'S NERVOUS AND INVIGORATING COR-DIAL, for Heart Disease, all Nervous Affections, Flatuience, Heart Burn, Restlessness, Numbness, Neuralgia, ralsing the spirits, and giving power to the whole system, it is almost miraculous in its effect 50 cents a bottle.

DAILY EVENING STAR.

STORY OF THE WRONG BABY. The Sunday Courier, whose editor is famous for finding out naughty places where married women of New York resort to get fun and excitement, relates the following incident connected with a check-apron sairee," in East Broadway:

These meetings are held exclusively private, so that even the police can't find out a whisper about them. Oysters and game suppers, champaigne and whiskey toddys, fill up the rosy hours to the brim. The men have many of them, wives and families, hold cushioned pews in fashionable churches, attend Hope Chapel lectures, and eschew Sunday newspapers. There are moral, highhead ed men in the community, and subscribe liberally to tract societies and foreign missions. They turn up their eyes in holy horror at reports of common licentiousness, in company with women who, bearing respectable characters among their neighbors, are false to every feeling of virtue.

One of the female members of these check-apron assemblages was most singularly, the agent in bringing this den of now hear but the cry of the owl and jackrevelry to light. It seems that she is a all. married woman, the wife of an honest mechanic, and the mother of a young child. She had a comfortable home, and apparently, all that a modest woman could desire: but, sad to say, was a regular attendant on and participant in checkapron "sociables." The nature of her husband's vocation made it necessary for him to work until 12 o'clock every night, always at home before her husband arrived, and thus for months had carried on her clandestine amusement, without the least danger of exposure. But "murder will out," and did.

A few nights since the socialists met the excitement was at its height, when, hark !-- one-two-three-four-fivesix-seven-eight -nine-ten-eleven-TWELVE! struck like a death knell upon the ears of the 12 o'clock lady.

"My God!" she exclaimed, "I shall be too late! My husband will be home beshawl and bonnet, and catching her sleeproom, she left the house, without even ips of her moral paramour. She gained her own door, almost breathless-her hand trembled as he grasped the knobshe opened it carefully. "Thank God. he is not here. I am safe," was her ejaculation, as she placed her infant on as the wife was busy getting breakfast, she was suddenly called by her husband. "I say, wife, look here-I thought our child was a girl," said he.

"Well, so it is," replied the wife. "Indeed! Well come and look at this

But the husband relieved her, for on taking a good look at us good-by. the little fellow, he exclaimed: "Why this is Mrs. ——'s child."

The terrific wife at once confessed all and named the people who were in the habit of meeting her at Mrs. ——'s.
